Work Study Position: Gallery Assistant

Application Deadline: Saturday, May 11, 2024

The Gallery Assistant will assist in the front of house operations of the Art Museum at the University of Toronto, including supporting the Operations Assistant in giving exhibition tours, disseminating curatorial materials to visitors, maintaining exhibition equipment, and daily gallery operations to professional museum standards. The Gallery Assistant will support Art Museum events and public programs, develop their own exhibitions and collections tour content, and respond to visitor inquiries about exhibitions and collections.

To Apply:

Interested University of Toronto students should apply on the Career Learning Network: clnx.utoronto.ca

About the Art Museum at the University of Toronto

The Art Museum is one of the largest gallery spaces for visual art exhibitions and programming in Toronto. The Art Museum organizes and presents an intensive year-round program of exhibitions and events that foster—at a local, regional, and international level—innovative research, interdisciplinary scholarship, and knowledge of art and its histories befitting Canada’s leading university and the country’s largest city.
